

The Dynamis Group promotes the development of leaders, teams and organizations so they can effectively fulfill their God-given calling through catalytic processes for change and development.

Dynamis is lead by Ken Harder, PhD. Ken has over 25 years of experience working and consulting with organizations to increase their effectiveness and efficiency. His techniques have empowered leaders, guided boards of directors in redefining their companies, facilitated organizational change, and enhanced cultural integration.

Dynamis will give your organization and its leaders the strategies they need to meet their goals. For more information on how Dynamis can help you, see the services page.
